ARCHIVES

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

CLARK, Alexander Downs
(1813-1883)

60:26

Transferred from Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary
Alexander Downs Clark was born near Bartville, Lancaster Co., PA, Dec. 23, 1813; attended Franklin College, New Athens, Ohio, where he graduated 1839. Clark graduated Allegheny Seminary and was licensed by 2nd Ohio Presbytery (A.R.) April 30, 1844. Clark was President Franklin College, New Athens, OH, from 1845-1861. The 2nd Ohio Pres. (A.R.) ordained Mr. Clark Aug. 12, 1846 when he became Stated Supply at New Athens, OH where he served from 1846-1861. Mr. Clark was Professor of Biblical Literature and Criticism, in Allegheny Seminary from 1847 and pastor of 6th United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny, PA, from Oct. 15, ’61 until his death, April 12, 1884. Jefferson College conferred a D. D. in 1854. [p. 76, Glasgow manual].

SCOPE

Photograph; Address: The Importance of an Educated Ministry, and the Nature of the Education Required, November 16, 1886.

Addendum, July 15, 2002:

Two copies: The Importance of an Educated Ministry, and the Nature of the Education Required, November 16, 1865. (One copy in poor condition).