ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Jared Judd JACKSON

97:4

Transfer from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Jared Judd Jackson, Jr. was the son of the curator of rare books at Harvard Library. He was educated at Groton School, at Harvard College, at the Episcopal Theological Seminary in Cambridge, Massachusetts and earned his Th.D. at Union Seminary in New York City.

Dr. Jackson was ordained by the Episcopal Church. After service in the Marines and as an assistant pastor, he taught at an Anglican seminary in Canada and at Williams College, Williamstown, Massachusetts. Dr. Jackson was named an Assistant Professor in Old Testament at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania in 1965 where he served until his retirement in 1997.

The record of Jared Jackson contains a photograph, an item about him, his work and his family, Aims of an Intro. Course…Hebrew and Greek Testaments, a Course guide for Biblical Studies I and an article, David’s Throne: Patterns in the Succession Story, Canadian Journal of Theology, Vol. XI (1965), No. 3.
JACKSON, Jared Judd (97:4).

I. INVENTORY.

Photograph; item about Jackson, his work and his family; Aims...Course...Hebrew and Greek Testaments; Biblical Studies I Course; List of publications; David’s Throne: Patterns in the Succession Story, Canadian Journal of Theology, Vol. XI (1965), No. 3.

Completed August 20, 2002.

MWS.