Gordon Edmund Jackson
(1918-1999)

94:1

Transferred from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.
HISTORY

Gordon Edmund Jackson was born in Spokane, Washington, January 11, 1918. He graduated from Monmouth College in 1940 and Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary in 1943. Puget Sound Presbytery ordained Mr. Jackson in 1943 when he became Stated Supply for the Olympia, Washington congregation where he served from 1943-1949. Rev. Jackson was appointed Professor of Philosophy of Religion and Religious Education in 1949. From 1955 until 1970 he was Academic Dean of the Seminary. In 1960, at the time P-X and Western Seminaries merged, Professor Jackson was inaugurated to the Hugh Thompson Kerr Chair of Pastoral Theology. Dr. Jackson’s Ph.D. was earned from the University of Chicago in 1954. Jackson was the author of multiple articles and books. In 1953 Tarkio College bestowed a D.D. He retired in 1994 and died December 1999.
