ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

James Sheppard IRVINE
(1927-)

66:3

Transfer from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
ARCHIVES

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

HISTORY

James Sheppard Irvine was born in Altoona, Pennsylvania on December 21, 1927. He attended Altoona Public Schools, earned his BA at Washington and Jefferson College and his BD at Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh. Mr. Irvine had a PhD from Johns Hopkins University in Semitic Languages and an MLS from Carnegie Library School in Pittsburgh. Dr. Irvine was a Teaching Fellow at Western Seminary from 1952 to 1953, then Librarian from 1958 until 1960. He assumed Librarian duties at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary when Western and Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminaries were united in 1960, serving there until 1966.

SCOPE

The record group of James Sheppard Irvine contains a photograph, biographical information and correspondence.

FF 1.

MWS.