ARCHIVES

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

James Alexander GRIER
(1846- )

60:36

Transfer from Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary
HISTORY

James Alexander Grier was born at Walt’s Mill, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania May 8, 1846. He was educated at Monmouth College, Illinois and earned his theological degree from Newburgh (Associate Presbyterian) Theological Seminary. Mr. Grier was licensed to preach by New York Presbytery in 1873. Chartiers Presbytery ordained him as pastor of Chartiers Cross Roads congregation in 1874 where he remained until 1883. In 1883 Mr. Grier became pastor of Second Church in Mercer, Pennsylvania, serving until 1887. He was Professor of Systemic and Polemic Theology at Allegheney Theological Seminary. Westminster College in New Wilmington, Pennsylvania, conferred a D.D. and an LL.D. Mr. Grier published multiple articles in denominational papers and current magazines.

SCOPE

James A. Grier’s record is made up of a pamphlet, several booklets and an article in The United Presbyterian, Our United Presbyterian Fathers, May 23, 1958
James Alexander GRIER (60:36).

I. INVENTORY.