HISTORY

Jeremiah Murray Dick (89:2), son of Rev. Mungo Dick, was born in Mt. Pleasant, Westmoreland County, PA, March 5, 1818. He was graduated from Western University (University of Pittsburgh) in 1837 and from Allegheny Theological Seminary. He was a missionary in the West from 1841-1851. In 1851, Blairsville Presbytery ordained Dick as a missionary to Schristian, OR. Mr. Dick served there until his retirement in 1884 in Waltonville, OR and later in Las Vegas, NM, where he died, February 9, 1902.

SCOPE

The record of Jeremiah Murray Dick contains a number of sermons, some newspaper items, a Mercer Presbytery report, correspondence and some financial records.

mws.