ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY
To

Susan L. NELSON

2006:2
Transfer from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
ARCHIVES

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

HISTORY

Susan L. Nelson (Dunfee) joined the faculty of Pittsburgh Seminary in 1984 as Assistant Professor of Theology and later Associate Professor. She attended the University of Rochester where she received her B.A. Her M.Div. was granted by Pittsburgh Theological Seminary where she was ordained in 1979. Her Ph.D. was earned at Claremont Graduate School in 1984. In 2002, Dr. Nelson was installed as Professor of Theology and Culture at Pittsburgh, a post she held until 2006 when she became Dean at Claremont School of Theology in Claremont, California. Dr. Nelson is the author of multiple articles and two books. Dr. Nelson died November 4, 2010 at her home in Shadyside (Pittsburgh).

SCOPE

Dr. Nelson's record includes course materials, bibliography for a course, a copy of her service of ordination, an article from The Quarterly Review (1989), PTS continuing education courses, an article from 1997 Pittsburgh Panorama, the invitation to Susan Nelson's installation to the Chair of Theology and Culture at Pittsburgh Seminary, notice of her appointment as Dean at Claremont School of Theology, etc.

See catalog for circulating publications.
INVENTORY

Message: Dr. Nelson to Seminary friends regarding resignation.
Message: Dr. Carl to Seminary personnel regarding resignation.
Luncheon…message of late pope, 2/18/2006.
Installation as Bicentennial Chair of Theology and Culture, 11/12/2002.
Copy: Deliver Us From Evil: Through the Eyes of Marian Kolodziej.
Article: The Use of Religious Symbols in the Context of Auschwitz….
Article: Women in Ministry: Estrangement From Ourselves.
EVIL. Fall 1998.
Letter to Editor: Finding room for two kinds of 'truth'….
Working Paper: Individualistic Character Development….
Bibliography: Women's Experience and Christian Faith.
Item: Panorama.  Susan N. Dunfee…Ph.D.
Susan N. Dunfee…"…goals of seminary education…."  