ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

John Williamson NEVIN
(1803-1886)

60:54

Transfer from Western Theological Seminary
HISTORY

John Williamson Nevin was born in Strasburg, Pennsylvania, February 20, 1803. He attended Union College in Schenectady, New York, where he graduated in 1821. Mr Nevin received his theological education at Princeton Theological Seminary, earning his B.D. in 1826. He was an instructor at Princeton from 1826-1828. In 1829, Nevin served as Stated Supply at Big Spring, Pennsylvania. He was ordained by Ohio Presbytery in 1835. In 1829 John Nevin became Professor of Biblical Literature at Western Theological Seminary, a position he held until 1837 and of Church History from 1837 to 1840. Mr. Nevin then moved to Mercersburg Seminary where he remained from 1840-1852. From 1866-1876 he was president of Franklin and Marshall College. Additionally, John Nevin was editor of Mercersburg Review from 1849 to 1853. He died at Lancaster, Pennsylvania on January 6, 1886.

John Williamson Nevin was author of numerous articles and books. Jefferson College honored him with a D.D. in 1839. Union College bestowed an LL.D. in 1873.

SCOPE

The record of John Williamson Nevin is made up of correspondence related to Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny (Pittsburgh), Pennsylvania.
NEVIN, John Williamson (60:54).

INVENTORY.

Correspondence:

J. W. Nevin to David Elliot at Western Theological Seminary, April 12, 1836; Nevin to Elliot, May 24, 1837; Nevin to ? Schaff, November 3, 1850; Nevin to A. D. Campbell, December 10, 1860; Nevin to Schaff, March 21, 1864.

MWS.
