ARCHIVES

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

Samuel Jack NICCOLLS
(1838-1915)

60:63

Transfer from Western Theological Seminary
Samuel Jack Niccolls was born in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania August 3, 1838. He received his AB from Jefferson College in 1857 and graduated from Western Theological Seminary in 1860. Mr. Niccolls was licensed by Redstone Presbytery in 1859 and ordained by Carlisle Presbytery in 1860 when he became pastor at Chambersburg, PA. He served in Chambersburg from 1860-65. From 1865-1915 Niccolls was pastor of 2nd Presbyterian Church, St Louis, MO. Mr. Niccolls died August 19, 1915 in Old Forge, NY. He had served as Moderator of General Assembly in 1972 and was Lecturer in Pastoral Theology at Western Theological Seminary 1883-1884. Niccolls authored a discourse on the assassination of Abraham Lincoln which is contained in Barbour Library at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary as well as is a 50th anniversary of his pastorate.

Completed March 24, 2003

MWS.