ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

James RAMSEY
(1771-1855)

60:31

Transfer from Xenia Theological Seminary
HISTORY

James Ramsey was born in Pequea, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania March 23, 1771. He was educated at Canonsburg(h) Academy and Service Theological Seminary. He was ordained by Chartiers Presbytery in 1805 when he became pastor of the Chartiers congregation. He served there until 1849. Ramsey also served as Professor of Theology at Canonsburg(h) Seminary from 1821-1842. Mr. Ramsey died at Frankfort Springs, Pennsylvania on March 6, 1855.

Jefferson College bestowed a D.D. in 1824. Mr. Ramsey served as Moderator of Synod of the Associate Church in 1826.

SCOPE

The record group of James Ramsey is made up of a biographical memorial, written by T.B., appearing in the Evangelical Repository, Vol. XIV,1855; a separate copy of the memorial, sermons, and a photograph of James Ramsey; and a handwritten biographical paper by Samuel Collins read at the centennial observation at Xenia Seminary in 1894.

FF 1.