Transfer from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
HISTORY

Richard A. Ray received his B.A. from Dartmouth College, his M.Div. from Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia and his PhD. from the University of St. Andrews, Scotland. Dr. Ray had served as Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Bristol, Tennessee from 1981 until coming to Pittsburgh in 1997. He also taught at Stephens and King Colleges and was a former editor of John Knox Press (dates not known). Richard Ray was inaugurated and installed to the Robert Meneilly Chair of Leadership and Ministry at Pittsburgh Seminary in 1997 and remained in that post until 2001. This chair is unique in that it is limited to a three year period. Each occupant will teach from his or her own area of specialty and interact on campus with students.

SCOPE

The Richard Ray record contains a notice of a lecture by Dr. Ray, and invitation to his inaugural and an article by Ray in Presbyterian Outlook, September 25, 2000.

Completed November 11, 2002.
