ARCHIVES

Pittsburgh Theological Seminary

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

dietrich RITSCHL
(1929- )

70:4

Transfer from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Dietrich Ritschl (70:4) was born on January 17, 1929 in Basel, Switzerland. His education in Mathematics and Physics was gained in the University of Tubingen, Germany and in Basel, Switzerland. Ritschl then attended the University at Bern, Switzerland and Basel where he earned his degree in Theology and Philosophy in 1950. In 1957 Mr. Ritschl received his Th.D. in Edinburgh, Scotland. From 1950 until 1952, Mr. Ritschl served as Assistant Minister in Zyfen, Baselland, Switzerland. In 1952 he became pastor of a German Speaking Congregation in Scotland where he served from 1952-1958. During the Fall Semester of 1957, Ritschl was Lecturer in New Testament at Presbyterian College, Montreal, Canada, then moving on to Austin Presbyterian Seminary, Austin, Texas, he was Associate Professor of History of Dogma and New Testament from 1958-1963. Dr. Ritschl served also as Guest Lecturer in New Testament, at Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest in Austin from 1959-1961. From 1958-1962 Ritschl served Wimberly Community Church, Texas as its pastor. Arriving in Pittsburgh in 1963 as Professor of Doctrine and Systematic Theology at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, he remained until 1970 when he returned to his homeland.

Dr. Ritschl is the author of numerous articles, many of them catalogued and circulating in Barbour Library at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.

The record of Dietrich Ritschl contains a photograph, biographical information, an item from a Pittsburgh newspaper and several reprints of articles by him.
RITSCHL, Dietrich (70:4).

INVENTORY

I. Personal information: Photograph; Biographical Statement; article about Ritschl and Christianity in Russia (September 23, 1963).

II. Reprints; book review.

Historical Development and Implications of the Filioque Controversy. From Essays presented to Markus Barth on his 65th Birthday.

Thesen zum Dialog zwischen Christen und Marxisten. Evangelische Theologie, February/March 1968.

Parrhesia. Die Last des augustinischen Erbes (no date).

Athanasius. Theologische Studien. Evz-Verlag, Zurich, Heft 76.

Historiography: Ritschl.

MWS.