ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

George B. SMITH
(1841- )

60:57

Transfer from Western Theological Seminary
HISTORY

George B. Smith was born near Latrobe, Pennsylvania, December 28, 1841. He attained his A.B. from Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pennsylvania in 1868 and his theological degree from Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, (Pittsburgh), Pennsylvania in 1871. Smith was ordained by Blairsville Presbytery in 1871. He served as pastor in Seward, Nebraska from 1871-1876, then in Martinsburg, Iowa from 1876-1880. He moved to Scott (IA?) and remained from 1880-1885. From 1885-1888 Smith was pastor at Malcom before moving to Hardin, Illinois in 1897 where he served until 1899. In 1899 Mr. Smith moved to Tower Hill (IL?) when he remained until 1901. Smith moved in 1901 to Alpha, Minnesota, serving until 1907. He accepted a call to St. Paul where he remained from 1907-1910. Smith then became chaplain at the Minneapolis Soldiers Home.

SCOPE

The record of George B. Smith contains a notebook of lecture notes from D. H. Riddle and from J. Edwards.

Smith also authored a Brief History of Iowa City Presbytery and its Predecessors.