ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

John Hunter WEBSTER
(1862-1933)

(60:66)

Transfer from Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary
HISTORY

John Hunter Webster was born in Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, January 8, 1862. After his early education, he received his BA from Westminster College in 1886 and his BD from Xenia Theological Seminary in 1893. Mr. Webster was ordained by Cedar Rapids Presbytery when he became pastor of 2nd Church in Cedar Rapids, IA. He served there from 1893-1895 when he was called to 8th Church in Philadelphia, PA where he remained from 1895-1908. Mr. Webster was called as a professor to Xenia Seminary and later Pittsburgh-Xenia where he taught Greek and New Testament Literature from 1909 until his death in 1933. Webster was author of numerous articles and Sunday School lesson materials.

SCOPE

The record of John Hunter Webster contains a bibliographic account, death notice, memorial note and a photograph.

Completed May 19, 2003.

MWS.