ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

Clarence J. Williamson
(1879-1956)

60:67

Transfer from Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary
ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

HISTORY

Clarence J. Williamson was born in Bellefontaine, Ohio on August 18, 1879. Following his early education, he attained a BA degree from Tarkio College in MO and a BD from Allegheny Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh. Mr. Williamson was ordained by Monongahela Presbytery in 1905 when he became a pastor at 6th United Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh where he remained until 1906. He was pastor at Caledonia from 1906-1911, at New Brighton, PA from 1907-1911 and at Highland United Presbyterian in New Castle, PA from 1917-1931. Mr. Williamson was Professor of Church History and Government at Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary from 1931-1952. From 1952-1956 Williamson served as Assistant Pastor at Highland. Clarence Williamson died in New Castle July 19, 1956.

SCOPE

The record of Clarence J. Williamson contains a list of books recommended by Dr. Williamson, a pamphlet on Creation/Evolution, an article from The United Presbyterian, notice of his retirement from Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary, an obituary and an article in The United Presbyterian honoring him at the time of his death.

Completed May 19, 2003.

MWS.