ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

INVENTORY

to

Iain G. WILSON
(1912-1995)

68:4

Transfer from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
HISTORY

Iain G. Wilson was born in March 21, 1912 in Oban, Argyll, Scotland. He graduated from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland in 1938 with a BD and an MA in Church History. He studied at Marburg University in Germany where he finished in 1937. During his seminary years, Mr. Wilson served as an assistant pastor in Edinburgh and Belfast. He was ordained in the Church of Scotland in 1938 as pastor at Slammanan, Stirlingshire. From September 1939 to mid-1946, Wilson was a chaplain in the British military force. At the end of the war he served as Religious Affairs Officer in the British Zone in Germany, then as Secretary for Germany, Reconstruction Department, and with the World Council of Churches in Geneva, Switzerland. In 1948, Mr. Wilson came to the United States of A where he was Associate Professor of English Bible, and Church History at Davidson College, NC, then from 1954-1963 as pastor of the Franklin Street Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, MD. In 1963, Wilson became William Oliver Campbell Chair of Homiletics at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary where he remained until 1968. He retired to Bozeman, MT where he died October 22, 1995.

SCOPE

The record group of Iain G. Wilson contains his photograph, biographical information and curricula vita, an obituary, news items, several of his publications and correspondence.
Iain G. WILSON (68:4).

INVENTORY.

Photograph; biographical notes (2 copies); obituary.
The Catholic Review. In Conversation with Dr. Iain Wilson. (no date).

Correspondence: Mrs. Iain Wilson to Stephen Crocco (1997). Article Mentioned in May 18, 1997 letter did not accompany materials received in PTS Archives.

Completed June 16, 2003

mws.