Conway Phelps WING
(1809-1889)

60:24

Transferred from Western Theological Seminary
Conway Phelps Wing was born in 1809 in Marietta, Ohio. He attended Hamilton College, Clinton, New York where he graduated in 1928, from where he then moved to Auburn Seminary, graduating in 1831. Mr. Wing served pastorates in Sodus and Ogden in Monroe, New York; in Huron, Michigan; Columbia, Tennessee and Huntsville, Alabama. Called to Carlisle, Pennsylvania in 1848 Conway Wing served twenty-six years until his retirement.

In the course of his ministry, Mr. Wing was involved with the revivals of Charles Finney in Western and Central New York state. While serving in the ante bellum south he forthrightly opposed slavery.

In 1870 Wing was a member of the Joint Commission of Reconstruction for the Presbyterian Church of the “New School Branch.”

The record group of Conway Phelps Wing contains a small book with pastoral records, two books of sermons and a manuscript.
