SCOPE

The record group of John McNaugher is comprised of personal/biographical information, article, pamphlets, books, lectures and correspondence.

HISTORY

John McNaugher was born at Allegheny Pennsylvania on December 30, 1857. Following his early education, McNaugher attended Westminster College, graduating there in 1880. He taught at Westminster in the academic year of 1880-1881, prior to entering seminary at Xenia Ohio. Following his graduation from seminary, Mr. McNaugher studied at Glasgow and Edinburgh in Scotland. He was licensed to preach in April 1884 and ordained by Mansfield Presbytery when he became pastor at Fredericksburg Ohio, a church he served until 1886. At that point, Dr. McNaugher was appointed professor of Church History, New Testament Literature and Criticism at Allegheny Seminary in 1886, serving there and in what became Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary until his retirement in 1943. He was president from 1909-1943.

Dr. McNaugher was a member of many boards and organizations, among them the Executive Commission Alliance Reformed Churches, 1896, Delegate to the Ecumenical Mission Conference, 1901, and to the Pan Presbyterian Council in 1904. He held honorary degrees from Monmouth College, Muskingum College and the University of Pittsburgh.

A number of pamphlets and brochures appeared under McNaugher’s name, and he was Editor of The Psalms in Worship, author of The U. P. Church -- Its History and Mission and other books. The reader/researcher will want to check central circulating catalog in Barbour Library, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.

John McNaugher died December 11, 1947 after a long life of service.
