History

Frank Dixon McCloy was born May 18, 1910 in Pittsburgh, PA, achieving his early education in local schools. His B.A. was earned at the University of Pittsburgh, receiving his diploma in 1932. McCloy pursued his M.A there, as well, attaining it in 1933. A B.S.T. was granted in 1939 by Western Theological Seminary, and his Ph.D. from Harvard in 1959. Dr. McCloy was an accomplished organist also, studying organ during 1939-40.

In 1944, Dr. McCloy became librarian and instructor in Bible at Western Seminary, where he later served as Dean, serving in that institution until 1959. Washington and Jefferson College honored McCloy with a D.D. in 1952.

When Western and Pittsburgh Xenia merged in 1959, Dr. McCloy was appointed Associate Professor, a position he held until his death in 1967.

Scope

The McCloy record group contains a body of Patristic history, lecture notes regarding the early Church, notes addressing Christian literature, music, art, significant individuals (Calvin, etc.), sermons covering the years 1940-1967, and some correspondence and news items.
