HISTORY

The Rev. Dr. Donald Mackenzie was born in Scotland and was educated at Aberdeen University with Highest Honors, and received the Bain Gold Medal in Philosophy. Rev. Mackenzie was pastor in several congregations while completing his divinity studies. He later was awarded the Fullarton Scholarship. With this last, Mr. Mackenzie studied at Halle and Berlin in Germany. For three years, Dr. Mackenzie was Assistant Professor of Logic and Metaphysics at the University of Aberdeen.

In 1928, Dr. Mackenzie came to the United States where he was appointed as Professor of Systematic Theology and Apologetics at Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, a position he held until 1933, at which time he was elected Professor of Biblical Theology at Princeton Theological Seminary where he served until his death in 1941 at the age of fifty-nine.

Washington and Jefferson College bestowed a Doctor of Divinity on Dr. Mackenzie in 1931, as did the University of Aberdeen in 1934. He authored many articles on Religion and Ethics. Dr. Mackenzie was married to Alice A. Murray of Scotland. The couple had three daughters and a son.
