ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

Addison Hardie Leitch
(1908-1973)

61:2

Transferred from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
The record group of Addison H. Leitch contains personal information, sermons, newspaper items of historic value and several publications. The reader/researcher will want to explore the circulating catalog for other material.
VI. Articles.

The Two Seminaries...May 17, 1958.
Ted Williams and a Piano Quartet, March 24, 1957.
Needless Retreat, May 21, 1956.
Ten Million Dollars, February 6, 1956.
All About Lassie, March 12, 1955.
VI.

Meditations On a Trip West, February 1, 1954.
Pittsburgh-Xenia Dean...May 24, 1954.
Who Did This to Me? May 24, 1954.
How the Pittsburgh-Xenia...Spiritual Life, September 14, 1953.
Pittsburgh-Xenia...Inaugural Ceremony, November 25, 1946.
Dr. Leitch...P-X Seminary, November 19, 1945.

VII. Publications,

Theological Conflict (Inaugural Address), October 27, 1955 (2 copies).
What United Presbyterians Believe (2 copies), a pamphlet.
Meet Dr. Luke, a study guide (2 copies).
A Brief History of Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary, The United
Presbyterian, February 16, 1958 (2 copies).
Beginnings in Theology, 12 studies.

January 5, 1998  Mary Wilson Sage

Other materials, personal papers deposited at the Presbyterian Historical Society,
Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

Publications.

Theological Education prepared for Presbyterians Concerned for Biblical Concerns, a pamphlet. 2 copies

ADDENDUM, June 4, 2002
Article: Theology in the stratosphere