Paul Wilbert Lapp
1930-1970

******

Transfer from

Nancy Renn Lapp
The Lapp record group contains sermons and papers. In addition to records of ASOR, there are those of the Palestine Archaeological Museum, on whose Board Lapp served. This interlinking of the two institutions placed Lapp in touch with the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls and the controversy surrounding these treasures.

SCOPE

Paul Wilbert Lapp was native to California, born August 5, 1930. His Curriculum Vitae is impressive: AB, Concordia College (1951); Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Missouri (1955); MA and PhD. Ed., University of California, Berkeley (1955); PhD at Johns Hopkins University with continuing study in Semitic languages and Near Eastern Archaeology as a Fellow at the American School of Oriental Research (ASOR), Jerusalem (1958); ThD, Harvard Divinity School (1960). Lapp's dissertation addressed Palestinian Ceramic Chronology: 200 BC--AD 70." It was acclaimed as "excellent," and was later published by ASOR.

Paul Lapp joined the faculty of American University in Washington, DC in 1959. He served as "Annual Professor, Director, or Professor of Archaeology" at ASOR for eight years. His connection with Pittsburgh Theological Seminary began in 1968, as Professor of Old Testament and Archaeology, and ended abruptly with his untimely death at age 39.

The career of Paul Lapp demonstrated energy, brilliance, scholarship and dedication. He was acclaimed as a foremost Near Eastern archaeologist of his generation. Published prolifically, a number of works were left for his widow, Nancy Renn Lapp, a collaborative archaeologist, to prepare for publication.

Paul Lapp died while swimming off Cyprus in 1970. His burial, at the request of his wife, was made at Jerusalem.
