David Gregg
(1846-1919)

60:15

Transferred from Western Theological Seminary.
HISTORY

David Gregg (60:15) was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania March 25, 1846. He attended Jefferson College in Canonsburg, Pennsylvania where he graduated in 1865 and the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh, graduating there in 1868. A DD was conferred on Mr. Gregg by New York University, and an LL.D by Livingston College and a similar honor by Washington and Jefferson College.

The Reformed Presbyterian Presbytery of New York ordained Mr. Gregg in 1870 when he became pastor of the 3rd Reformed Presbyterian Church in New York City. The Reformed Presbyterian Church named Dr. Gregg Moderator of General Synod in 1882.

Gregg later served as pastor of Park Street Congregational Church in Boston, Massachusetts and Lafayette Avenue Church in Brooklyn, New York. Rev. Dr. Gregg was president of Western Theological Seminary in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania from 1903-1908, then President Emeritus and Lecturer from 1908-1919.

Dr. Gregg edited OUR BANNER 1874-87 and was author of numerous articles and books. He died in New York City on November 11, 1919.

SCOPE

The record group of Dr. David Gregg is made up of personal papers, pamphlets, HERODOTOS with Greek and Latin texts and a collection of Gregg's articles, sermons compiled as THE NATIONAL CRISIS.

The reader/researcher will want to explore the circulating catalog.
ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

GREGG, David (60:15).

I. INVENTORY. FF 1.

II. Personal information.

Invitation to Inauguration of David Gregg as president of Western Theological Seminary, May 2, 1905.
Program for Inauguration, May 26, 1905.
PANORAMA, Vol. XXII, No. 4 (February 1983) with article about David Gregg.

Correspondence: J. Howard Dunn to PANORAMA re: Gregg item, March 10, 1938.
Our Scotch Covenanter Heritage (by Dunn).

Article, PITTSBURGH DISPATCH, April 18, 1892, reports, news item:
Millionaire father disinherit son who changed denomination.

Brooklyn news item: Dr. Gregg Preached in Scotland.

Death notice of Dr. David Gregg. FF 2.

III. Correspondence.

David Gregg to Dr. [James Henry] Snowden, October 25, 1912.
Gregg to Snowden, June 28, 1911.
Gregg to Snowden, May 9, 1908.
Gregg to Snowden, April 9, 1907.
Gregg to Snowden, August 27, 1907.
Gregg to Snowden, May 16, 1907.
Gregg to Snowden, January 21, 1907.
Gregg to Snowden, January 7, 1907.
Gregg to Snowden, November 2, 1904.
Gregg to __________, no date. FF 3.

IV. Pamphlets.

The Minister That Shall Be Worth While, May 2, 1905.
Don't for the Colored People of the South, 1909.
Address, YMCA, Augusta, Georgia, 1909

FF 4.
V. GREGG, David (60:15).

Book:

VI. Lectures and Notes, bound as THE NATIONAL CRISIS.

Completed March 1998.
Mary Wilson Sage

ADDENDUM: July 13, 2004
Photograph of John R. Gregg, brother of David Gregg
Mary Ellen Scott

ADDENDUM: October 12, 2004
Mary Ellen Scott