ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

Arthur C. COCHRANE (9/23/09- )

78:1

Transferred by Arthur C. Cochrane
ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

HISTORY

Arthur C. Cochrane was born in Belleville, Ontario, Canada on September 23, 1909. He was educated there and in the University of Toronto (B.A.), Knox College (B.D.) and Edinburgh University (Ph.D.). Knox College conferred an honorary D.D. in 1963 and Iowa Wesleyan College granted an L.H.S. in 1967.

Dr. Cochrane served as pastor at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Tillsonburg in Ontario from 1938-1942 and at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Port Credit, Ontario, 1942-1948. In 1948 he was called as Professor of Systematic Theology at Dubuque Seminary in Iowa, serving in that capacity until 1971. During this period, Dr. Cochrane was Dean of Graduate Studies (1967-1971), Acting Dean (1970-1971), Visiting Professor at Yale Divinity School, 1963-1964. He assumed a position as Professor of Systematic Theology at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary in 1971 where he served until his retirement.

SCOPE

The record group of Arthur C. Cochrane addresses issues of the Church in the mid-20th century: The Confession of 1967, the Barmen Confession; photographs of Martin Niemoeller and Wilhelm Niesel; miscellaneous correspondence.
ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

I. COCHRANE, Arthur C. (78:1).

Correspondence, McCormick Theological Seminary, November 16, 1965, from Paul E. Davis.
McCormick Quarterly, Volume XIX, Number 2, January 1966; Monday

A Constructively Critical Commentary on the Confession of 1967 with discussion guide; Barmen and the Confession of '67.

Comments on the Preamble, Recommendations and Brief Contemporary Statement of Faith.

Confidential Document, To be used only in consultations sponsored by the committee on a brief contemporary statement of faith, October 1, 1963.

Presbyterian Outlook, Volume 147, Number 44, December 6, 1965,
The Confession of 1967 and Ecumenicity.

Review: A Commentary on the Confession of 1967 and An Introduction to "The Book of Confessions" by Edward A. Dowey, Jr. The West­

What is the Confession of 1967? by John Olert, Jr., D.D.

Why a Confession of Faith? by John Olert, Jr., D.D.
The Bible and the Confession of 1967, by Calvin DeVries.
A Resolution concerning the Confession of 1967.

The Christology of the Confession of 1967, Glenn E. Polzine.
Does the Confession of 1967 draw a line between the Jesus of history and the Christ of Faith?
The Minutes of the 32nd stated meeting of the Presbytery of Northeast Iowa, November 22, 1965.
Presbytery of Northeast Iowa, prore nata meeting, October 25, 1965.
Meeting on '67 Confession Draws 500, a news item.
The Confession of the Church, Presbyterian Life, February 15, 1965.
Response to the January 1966 McCormick Quarterly.

The Confession of 1967, amended and submitted to the presbyteries by the Boston Assembly.
A debate on the confessional position of the church, Presbyterian Life, Volume 18, Number 22, November 15, 1965. FF 10.

A call to every United Presbyterian, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Tuesday, December 27, 1966.

The New Confession, by Mariano Di Gangi, a pamphlet.

Overture to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, USA.

Minutes of the 28th stated meeting of the Presbytery of Northeast Iowa, January 18, 1965.

Overtures from General Assembly, 1965.

Correspondence, G.W. Bromley to Dr. Cochrane.

The Ministry of reconciliation, Part Two. FF 11.

Restating the faith of the church, Presbyterian Life, May 1, 1965.

A Lutheran's first reaction to the proposed new contemporary statement of faith (1967) of the United Presbyterian Church.

Some comments on the Confession of 1967. FF 12.

Freeway to Babylon, by Talmadge Wilson, a pamphlet.

Report...committee...statement of faith, General Assembly, May 1965.

The proposal...confessional position...UPCUSA, May 1965.

Correspondence:

Paul Boaz, February 8, 1966.

The session retreat, September 21, 1965.

Memo: to Presbytery representative, September 27, 1965.

Francis W. Pritchard, October 12, 1965.

Presbyterians United for Biblical Confession.

Cochrane to Francis W. Pritchard, November 3, 1965; Pritchard to Cochrane, November 1, 1965.

A resolution concerning the Confession of 1967.

Cochrane to Paul E. Davies, November 10, 1965.

Edmund W. Tratebas to Cochrane, November 9, 1965.

Barmen was wrong!, by Edward W. Stimson, a pamphlet, and letters.

I. COCHRANE, Arthur C. (78:1).

Miscellaneous.

Model for Ministry: a report...theology of the call (re: confession and order). FF 16.

Correspondence: C. M. Anderson to Cochrane, April 29, 1958; Vita: Arthur C. Cochrane; Barth's (Karl) letter to the students of Reformed Theology in Budapest, November 9, 1938 & carbon copy; list: articles by Cochrane; book reviews by Cochrane. FF 17.

To...General Assembly...Lord's Supper, March 26, 1975.
The text...Synod of Barmen (2 copies);
The theological significance of the Barmen Declaration, May 1934.
The theology of Barmen;
What was Barmen? FF 18.