Archives
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh Pennsylvania

Albert H. Baldinger
(1876–1963)

69:2

Transferred from Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.
HISTORY

Albert H. Baldinger was born at New Martinsville, West Virginia in 1876. Following his public education, he attended Westminster College in New Wilmington, Pennsylvania where he graduated in 1900. Mr. Baldinger pursued his theological education at Princeton Theological Seminary in Princeton, New Jersey, attaining his degree in 1903.

Allegheny Presbytery ordained Mr. Baldinger in 1903 when he became pastor at Springdale, Pennsylvania where he served until 1906. From Springdale, Baldinger moved to the Second United Presbyterian Church in Spokane, Washington, where he remained until 1908. He then became pastor of a church in Fowler, California, remaining there until 1916. From 1916 until 1917, Mr. Baldinger was Associate Secretary of the Board of Home Missions, following which he served in Butler, Pennsylvania as pastor of First United Presbyterian Church. He served that congregation from 1917 until 1930. After two years study in Edinburgh, Scotland, Dr. Baldinger was appointed a professor at Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary, a post he held from 1921 until 1948. He later served as interim pastor of Mellwood Church the Pittsburgh area from 1948 to 1949, the same year he was elected Moderator of General Assembly. After that busy year, Dr. Baldinger returned to Fowler, California as interim pastor, and later retired at Fresno, California in 1951.

SCOPE

The record group of Albert H. Baldinger (69:2) is made up of manuscripts and small publications. He was author of Sermons on Revelation.
ARCHIVES
Pittsburgh Theological Seminary
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

BALDINGER, Albert H. (69:2). INVENTORY.

Personal Information.

Obituary: M. Estelle Baldinger, 1978 (at 100 years).
Estelle Baldinger to Dr. Miller, October 1, 1968.
Photograph: Albert H. Baldinger.

Publications.

"My Bible and I," The United Presbyterian, no date.

Publications.

Publications.

"Founders' Day," Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary, April 1, 1957.
VII. Story of the English Bible," The United Presbyterian, August 18, 1952.
"No Vacancy!" Sermon, Pittsburgh-Xenia, no date.

Manuscripts; Photograph.

"Through Disunion to Reunion," no date.
Photograph: The United Presbyterian, 1932.

The reader/researcher will want to check the circulating collection at Barbour Library, Pittsburgh Theological Seminary.

Completed December 1997.
Mary Wilson Sage