Ried F. Shields (1893-1974)

76:2

Transfer from James Shields, son.
Ried F. Shields was born in 1893 in Allerton, Iowa. He attended Tarkio College, Tarkio, Missouri, graduating there in 1914. Theological studies were pursued at Pittsburgh Seminary, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, with the class of 1917. Des Moines Presbytery ordained him that same year.

Dr. Shields, with his wife, Mildred, was appointed by the Foreign Mission Board of the United Presbyterian Church in North America to service in the North Sudan and Ethiopia, where the couple served for many years. Tarkio College bestowed an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree on Ried Shields in 1933.

Upon return from foreign service, Dr. Shields became pastor of Calvary United Presbyterian Church in Wilmington, Delaware. His death occurred in 1974.

The Shields record group comprises the manuscript of his book, Beyond the Garden of Allah, a description of his work in the Islamic world, and sermons which cover a period from 19 to 19. Among these is a sermon preached upon the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination to the ministry.
