H. Ray Shear
(1889-1961)

Transferred from Family
H. Ray Shear was born in Putnam, New York in 1889 where he received his early education. In 1911 he graduated from Westminster College in New Wilmington, Pennsylvania and in 1915 from Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, New Jersey. Argyle Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church in North America, ordained Shear in 1915, following which he became pastor of his home congregation in Putnam. He served there for five years. Dalton, Ohio congregation called Ray Shear as its pastor in 1920 and he served that church until called as superintendent of Frenchburg, Kentucky school in 1923. It was there that Shear met the woman who would become his wife, Mina Knox. They married and both served as teachers in Frenchburg until 1929. Dr. Shearer moved then to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where he served a series of three congregations, West Park, Crafton Heights and Beverly Heights, all of the UPNA denomination. In 1946, Dr. Shear moved on to Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary faculty where he became Professor of Practical Theology. He remained at this post until his retirement. Westminster College bestowed an honorary Doctor of Divinity on its alumni in 1943. H. Ray Shear died in 1961.

The record group of H. Ray Shear is comprised of sermons from his many years as a pastor, as well as lecture materials, a small amount of correspondence, a few photographs and personal/family information.
