RABBI PHILLIP SIGAL
1927-1985

*****

Transfer from
Dr. Lillian Sigal
The archival record of Rabbi Phillip Sigal comprises articles addressing his wide range of interests in women's rights, Conservative Jewish tradition, Jewish/Christian dialogue and numerous timely issues. Included as well are pastoral materials related to the Jewish year and festivals, and congregational records from Ahavas Israel congregation, Grand Rapids MI, Temple B'Nai Zion, NJ, and Beth Abraham Synagogue, Bridgeton, NJ. There is wide correspondence, addresses presented to various community organizations, and miscellaneous papers. Rabbi Sigal's papers were provided to Pittsburgh Seminary Archives by Dr. Lillian Sigal, his widow, herself an accomplished scholar. She noted Phillip's affection for Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, its faculty and staff for their encouragement and support of his work.
